11. THE CASES OF TERMINATION AND SUSPENSION OF THE CONTRACT

- (i) This Contract will terminate in one of the following situations:
 - a. Upon expiration of the Administrator's term of office; this Contract shall terminate by law at the time of the term of the Administrator's term if the General Meeting of the Shareholders fails to decide on the renewal of the mandate, in which case the Parties may conclude an addendum in this respect;
 - b. By agreement of the parties. The parties may jointly agree to terminate this Contract amicably by establishing, by written agreement, the terms of termination, the rights and obligations for each of them.
 - c. Upon the Administrator's initiative; the Administrator may at any time renounce his/her position by submitting his/her resignation, subject to a 45-day notice period;
 - d. (1) Upon the Company's initiative; the Company may revoke the mandate and terminate this Contract unilaterally in one of the following cases:
 - the failure of the Administrator to achieve the performance indicators,
 - the breach by the Administrator of the ethical criteria set out in the Internal Regulations,
 - the repeated and unjustified absences from the sessions of the Management Board of the Company; the solidity of the justifications will be analyzed by the members of the Council,
 - (2) The termination of the Contract at the initiative of the Company will be made by a decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders, based upon a report of the Management Board.

- e. Any other reasons qualified under the law as causes of the termination of the Administrator's mandate.
- (ii) If the Administrator is revoked or the Mandate Contract ceases independently of his/her will, before the expiry of the period provided by Art. 5, he/she shall be entitled to receive the fixed indemnity until the date of conclusion of the Contract, to which shall also be added the variable indemnity, calculated proportionally to the actual duration in which the Contract has produced its effects.
- (iii) This Contract is suspended by law if the criminal proceedings are commenced against the Administrator for one of the offenses referred to in Art. 6 of the Law no. 31/1990 on the commercial companies.

12. FORCE MAJEURE. ACT OF GOD

- (i) None of the Parties shall be held liable for the failure to perform in due time and/or for the improper performance – in whole or in part – of any obligations under this Contract if the failure to perform or the inadequate performance of that obligation was determined by the Force Majeure or an Act of God.
- (ii) The Party invoking the Force Majeure or the Act of God must notify the other Party within 5 days of the occurrence of Major Force or the Act of God and take all possible measures to limit the consequences thereof.
- (iii) If, within 30 (thirty) days of the occurrence of Force Majeure or the Act of God, it does not cease, the Party receiving the Force Majeure or the Act of God notification shall be entitled to terminate this Contract by providing written notice to the other Party. In such a case, the Contract shall terminate upon the expiry of a period of 45 (forty-five) days from the receipt of a notification to that effect by the Party to whom it is addressed, without the need for court intervention or other formalities. The party invoking the Force Majeure or the Act of God will not be held liable for damages to the other Party as a result of its failure to perform its obligations under this Contract if it is proven that such failure is caused by the Force Majeure or an Act of God.

13. NOTIFICATIONS

- (i) Any notices or other communications to be made in accordance with the provisions of this Contract shall be deemed to have been made in full if they are made in writing and are sent either personally, by fax, courier or by registered letter with acknowledgment of receipt.
- (ii) The communications shall be deemed to have been received upon the date indicated in the positive transmission report (in the case of fax communications) or in the acknowledgment of receipt (in the case of courier or registered mail), to the extent that the receipt takes place between 9:00 AM and 5:00 PM of a Business Day in Romania. Otherwise, the communication will be deemed received at 9:00 AM of the following business day.

14. THE GOVERNING LAW AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- (i) The provisions of this Contract will be governed by the Romanian law.
- (ii) The disputes arising out of the conclusion, signing, modification, execution, application, termination or interpretation of this Contract and not settled amicably shall be brought to the resolution of the competent courts of the territorial jurisdiction of the Company's headquarters.

15. THE FINAL PROVISIONS

- (i) If one or more of the provisions of this Contract are, for any reason, considered null and unlawful, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, this shall not affect any other provision of this Contract or any other provision of any other document, act or instrument and they are lawfully replaced by the applicable legal provisions.
- (ii) If any of the Parties breaches any of its obligations under this Contract, the failure by the other Party to exercise its rights to demand the fulfillment of the obligation or the adequate compensation for that failure shall not be construed as a waiver or acceptance of such of situations.
- (iii) This Contract and the obligations assumed by it may not be assigned or transferred in any way by the Administrator.
- (iv) The amendment of this Contract shall be performed only by means of additional written acts signed by the Contracting Parties and shall become an integral part of this Contract.
- (v) Nothing in this Contract shall be interpreted as generating or regulating the employment relationships between the Company and the Administrator.

This Contract was drafted and signed by the Parties in 3 (three) copies, today _____. 2018, of which 2 (two) for the Company and one for the Administrator; each copy is equally legally binding.
